EDUCATION:

B.S. in Psychology, University of Oklahoma, 1983. Graduated with high honors.

HONORS THESIS: Sensory deprivation and amphetamine-induced stereotypy.

Ph.D. in Experimental Psychology, State University of New York at Albany (SUNYA), 1990.

DISSERTATION: Psychological factors influencing judgment and attitude regarding animal research: An application of functional measurement and structural equation modeling.

Post-Doctoral Research Associate, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, 1990-1993.

SPECIALTY: Development and application of experimental design and quantitative methods to social and behavioral research involving lighting.

EMPLOYMENT:

1/98 - 5/04 Quantitative Methodologist /Assistant Professor

5/04 - present Tenured Associate Professor, University of South Florida College of Nursing

Consult & collaborate with faculty on research design and methods, power analysis, hypothesis testing, and manuscript/proposal writing ❖ Teach courses in statistical theory and analysis, data management, and various quantitative research methods ❖ Current Research Interests: judgment and decision making in health care settings, quantitative methodology, the psychology of rumor propagation ❖ Software Expertise: SPSS, LISREL, HLM, SigmaPlot, ClustanGraphics, SamplePower, nQuery, UCINET, and Excel.

4/94 - 8/96 Research Scientist I, II, Research Foundation for Mental Hygiene, Albany, NY

Implemented CMHS-funded research-demonstration project on pediatric health service delivery ❖ Designed, conducted, and evaluated clinical outcomes study ❖ Trained and supervised field-interview staff ❖ Supervised data entry staff ❖ Designed and conducted network analysis of health service provider organizations ❖ Analyzed and interpreted data using various programs.

11/93 - 4/94 Senior Research Scientist, Center for Human Services Research & Evaluation, Albany

Executed state-wide survey of Medicaid recipients enrolled in HMOs ❖ Coordinated data management activities ❖ Conducted statistical analysis of service delivery & client satisfaction data using SPSS, & LISREL.

9/84 - 12/90 Research Assistant, Department of Psychology, State University of New York at Albany
Conducted human psychoacoustic experiments ❖ Conducted experiments in behavioral teratology and pharmacology ❖ Supervised undergraduate research assistants ❖ Designed, constructed, and operated various data gathering apparatus ❖ Organized and analyzed psychological and physiological data using SPSS & LISREL ❖ Taught intermediate level psychology courses.

1/81 - 5/83 Research Assistant, Department of Psychology, University of Oklahoma
Scheduled and supervised subjects in experiments on cognitive processes ❖ Managed and analyzed psychological and demographic data using SAS & Minitab ❖ Prepared figures and tables for manuscripts and presentations.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

University of South Florida College of Nursing (1998-present):
Multilevel Modeling using HLM, Cluster Analytic Techniques, Multidimensional Scaling, Statistical Methods in Nursing Research I, Statistical Methods in Nursing Research II, Statistical Methods in Nursing Research III, Measurement Theory in Nursing Research, Advanced Structural Equation Modeling with LISREL; (doctoral level courses).
Research Methods, Data Analysis for Health Sciences Research, Basic Statistics for Nursing; (master's level courses).
Nursing Inquiry; (undergraduate level course).

College of St. Rose, Albany NY (1993):
Experimental and Statistical Methods in Psychological Research (undergraduate level course).

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, NY, (1991):
Statistical Design for Behavioral Science (master's level course).

State University of New York at Albany, (1984-1990):
Experimental Methodology, Introductory Statistics, Experimental Psychology Lab, Computer Programming in the Social Sciences, Personal Computing Skills, Introductory Psychology; (undergraduate level courses).

Junior College of Albany Correctional Program, Coxsackie State Penitentiary, (1987):
Introductory Psychology.

RESEARCH GRANT ACTIVITIES:

Principal Investigator:

USF Established Researcher Award (2003). Assessing intentions to report impaired nursing practice, $5,000.

USF Creative Scholar Award (1998). Cognitive and attitudinal factors influencing nurses' judgments of functionally impaired colleagues, $7,403.

Co-Investigator with Maureen Groer, National Institute of Nursing Research (2012 - 2014):
The Association Between Pre-term Milk Immunobiology and Infant Health.
$409,750, Award#: R21NR013094-01A1.

Co-Investigator with Maureen Groer, National Institute of Nursing Research (2007 - 2011):
The influence of lactation on postpartum stress and immunity,
$1,448,651, Award#: R01NR0050000-04A2

Co-Investigator with Allison Edmonds, USF Collaborative for Children, Families, and Communities (2005): Pedometer and social learning intervention for 5th grade students, $8,468.

Co-Investigator with Mary Ann Krisman-Scott, USF Collaborative for Children, Families & Communities (2003): The influence of depression & anxiety on quality of life among adolescents with life threatening illness, $14,917.

Co-Investigator with Theresa Beckie, National Institute of Nursing Research (2002 - 2007): A Women's-Only Phase II Cardiac Rehabilitation Program, $1,692,660, Award# R01NR07678-01A2.

Collaborator with Mary S. Webb, National Institute for Nursing Research (2000): Modifying stress in hypertensive African American women, $372,351.

Co-Investigator with Audrey Nelson, Department of Veterans Affairs (1998-2001):
Case Management and Residential Rehabilitation of Persian Gulf War Veterans, $500,000.
Implementation of Ischemic Heart Disease Clinical Practice Guidelines, $600,000.
Implementation of Spinal Cord Medicine Clinical Practice Guidelines, $500,000.

Co-Investigator with Virginia Nodhturft, Department of Veterans Affairs (1999): Improving Health Outcomes of Diabetic Veterans: A Self-Management Program, $403,000.

REPRESENTATIVE CONSULTING ACTIVITIES:

Center for Translational Science Institute, USF Health, (2012-2013). Methodologist on Call.

International Journal of Nursing Studies, (2007-present). Statistical Editor.

Journal of Advanced Nursing, (2006-present). Statistical and Methodological Reviewer.

Nicholas DiFonzo — Rochester Institute of Technology, Rochester, NY, (2006 - 2009). Psychology of Rumor Propagation, NSF Grant No. BCS-0527371. Provide quantitative expertise on experimental design and statistical analyses.

Shriners Hospitals for Children — Corporate Headquarters, Tampa, Fl, (2004-2009). Provide recommendations to research staff on matters of study design, analytical approaches, and interpretation of data from clinical outcomes research and patient satisfaction surveys.

Department of Veterans Affairs Health Services Research & Development Center, Tampa, FL, (1998-2003). Collaborated on development of successfully funded clinical trials research proposals to VA for studying health services. ❖ Reviewed grant proposals and letters of intent for several health services research projects involving veterans. ❖ Presented reviews of proposals at HSR&D Conference entitled "Successful Funding for Health Services Research in the Department of Veterans Affairs", 1999. ❖ Statistical Consultant for Patient Safety Center of Inquiry's proposal writing sessions. ❖ Presented reviews of proposals at HSR&D Conference 2002.

Cancer Wellness Institute, Tampa, FL (2000-2002).

Provided statistical analysis and interpretation of data on nutritional supplement studies involving cancer patients.

Prentice Hall Health, Pearson Education, Upper Saddle River, NJ (2001-2002).

Reviewed the following textbooks on statistics:

-Elementary statistics for health care professionals: An interactive workbook by James R. Bush & Paul M. Sielski.

-Data analysis and statistics for nursing research by Denise F. Polit.

University of South Florida's Center for Product Ergonomics, (1998-1999).

Provided statistical analysis and interpretation of experiments on carpal tunnel syndrome and median nerve function.

PrimeLife Medical, Philadelphia, PA, (1998-1999).

Provided statistical analysis and interpretation for clinical trials dealing with behavioral treatment for incontinence management.

Incontinence Solutions, Seattle WA, (1998-1999).

Provided statistical analysis and interpretation for longitudinal clinical trial evaluating the effectiveness of behavioral and biofeedback treatment for urinary incontinence.

BioDerm, Inc.(1998-1999).

Consulted on development of clinical trial protocol for incontinence management device. Provided power analysis and sample-size estimates.
